Committee.

agement Announced of Miss Lucy Mildred Christian to Keeling Henderson Sisson—Mrs. Danner Entertains at Her Home.

There will be an informal tea at the man's Club this afternoon, and a series of prominent members will act as hostesses for the affair. The club rooms will be arranged with vases and flowers, and the tea tables will be set with the same flowers. These social teas at the club are always successful events, and the parlors filled in receiving hours with interesting groups of congenial friends.
From Williamsburg.
The Lightfoot Sins, of Baltimore, Miss Carter Ingram, who, with well Corington, Jr., and Stuart G.
Stanton, of this city, went to Jamestown on Saturday, have returned to Annapolis. The party motored from Jamestown to Williamsburg, where they visited places of interest and returned to the city Saturday evening.
The marriage will take place in June.

Entertained at Country Place.

The pretty country home of Mrs.
S. Danner, in Chesterfield County, Virginia, was the scene of a most pleasing social gathering, the occasion being the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Chesterfield County. The guests met and welcomed the guests at the outer portals of the home. The formal program of the occasion was presented by Mrs. E. B.
Danner, who presided over the program. The program consisted of a series of addresses by Mrs. William Danner, Mrs. E. B. Danner, Mrs. W. M.
Danner, and Mrs. E. B. Danner, president and vice-president, respectively, of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Chesterfield County. The program was most interesting and the guests were served with refreshments.

Concert.

Another social event of interest was a concert given at the residence of Edgar T.
Fry, 425 North Thirtieth Street, Friday evening. This is one of the many concerts of this season, and was under the artistic management of Mrs. J. B.
Fry, chairman. The rooms and corridors were decorated, and a large audience was present. The artists who contributed to the occasion were Andrew Atkinson, violinist, with C. Criddell, Floyd Norvell, C. C. Norvell and John Pockington, on the mandolin, piano, harp and banjo, respectively, as soloists.

Professor Atkinson is well-known in the circles, and is a musician of exceptional ability. Also Miss Katherine Seelman's vocal selection, especially Germanic numbers, aided in no small degree to the program. Those who were present were Mrs. J. B. Belch, Mrs.
C. Criddell, Misses Virginia Cecil, Miss Edith Grace Criddell, Myrtle C. C.
Duke, Mrs. Lillian Duke, Mrs. Pore,

Duke, Mrs. Eugene Norvell and Mrs.
Elizabeth Norvell, Misses Carrie Sandmaide Thurston, Abbie Wallace,

Miss Wayne.

LOEB TO APPEAR AGAIN TO TESTIFY FOR COLONEL

Will Tell How His Story Happened to Be Disputed by Three of Barnes's Witnesses.

NOT NEEDED BEFORE TUESDAY

Is Expected to Adjust His Version of Story to Satisfaction of Roosevelt Side of Case—Plaintiff on Stand To-Day.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] SYRACUSE, N. Y., May 16.—To set himself right with the jury, as well as to try to take a deep dent out of Colonel Roosevelt's defense in William Barnes's libel suit against him, William Loeb will revisit the battle ground this week and explain how his story on the witness stand happened to be disputed by three Barnes witnesses.
Loeb is expected here on Tuesday.
He will not be needed until then, as Barnes's case will not be all in before to-morrow night at the earliest.

The recalling of Loeb is very important to the Colonel. Of the two issues left in the case by Justice Andrews, the most important is that of the alleged bipartisan senatorship deals.

Loeb testified that Barnes told him of this combination, naming the time as the spring of 1911 and the place as the office of J. S. Bache & Co.

Three witnesses, Vice-President Wollman, of the Bache Co., and two of the firm's customers, insist that Loeb is eighteen months off in the date. This completely upsets his testimony, unless he can amend it. And, with his testimony upset, there will be a slim chance of a verdict in the Colonel's favor.

Mr. Roosevelt left here on Saturday with Loeb in mind, and it is believed the two conferred in New York. In all event, Loeb, according to present plans, will come back and adjust his version of the story to the satisfaction of the Roosevelt side of the case, at least.

Barnes will resume the stand on cross-examination to-morrow morning.
Bowers, for Roosevelt, hopes to have done with him by night.
Then the Colonel, assisted by Loeb and a few more witnesses with whom he has talked while in New York, will seek to sur-rebut the Barnes evidence.
At least a day will be consumed in summing up, and perhaps half a day will be needed by the justice to charge the jury.

Then the twelve men, mostly farmers and business men, will go into a room and decide the most important libel case that has ever been fought in this country.

BELGIANS FACED FAMINE, BUT NEVER HAD TO MEET IT

Cycle of Credit Re-Established and Many Thousands of Well-to-Do Saved From Bread Line.

OUTSIDE WORLD IS GENEROUS

American Commission for Relief by Middle of August Will Have Provided $65,000,000 Worth of Foodstuff—Charity for France.

LONDON, May 16.—The American Commission for Relief in Belgium will have provided $65,000,000 worth of foodstuffs for the Belgian people by the middle of August. Charitable contributions from America will have amounted to about $5,000,000, and approximately the same from other quarters of the world. The great bulk of the food supplies, representing the remaining $55,000,000 is being provided indirectly by the Belgian people themselves.

This is made possible by the elaborate financial machinery set up by the commission, enabling the Belgians to secure their own energies and resources. Fully 75 per cent of the Belgian people are being supplied with food without recourse to charity.

One result of the commission's operations is that bread is cheaper in Belgium than in London.

The greatest problem before the commission at first was that foodstuffs sold in Belgium to those who still had resources were paid for in paper. This money had no value outside of Belgium, and was depreciated there. The commission announced it would accept all kinds of paper issued in payment for breadstuffs, and this immediately restored the whole paper currency of the country to its full value.

The money was obtained from the belligerents for the commission to set up a form of exchange, whereby persons or institutions abroad owing money in Belgium should turn over to the commission the amount due in sterling or in dollars. The commission undertook to pay their debts for them in Belgium out of paper money received from the sale of foodstuffs.

By degrees the commission has extended this exchange department of its organization. It also advanced money to the communal governments, making their obligations therefor, and by pledging these obligations abroad has obtained further resources.

The communes have been enabled in this manner to procure money to pay communal officers, maintain the schools and keep up municipal works.

Thus the cycle of credit was re-established and many thousands of well-to-do persons were saved from the bread line. Before this machinery was set up virtually the whole population was dependent on the world's charity.

The commission estimated that it utilized about $3,000,000 a month to support the destitute. Having secured a complete monopoly of the importation of foodstuffs, the commission decided to fix the price of bread to show a small profit. This profit has been turned over toward the support of the dependent.

Furthermore as some of the communes in Belgium still had resources, the commission decided that a portion of the cost of feeding the impoverished should be imposed on the communes.
By these means the amount of benevolence claimed from the outside world has been reduced largely.

WALSH CLAIMS LETTERS PROVE HIS CHARGE TRUE

tween John D. Rockefeller, Jr.,

AMMONS'S EPISTLE DISCUSSED

Apparent From Passages Quoted That Governor's Message to President Wilson Was Prepared Under Rockefeller's Direction.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—Correspondence between John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and Ivy L. Lee, assistant to the president of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, relating to the "broad, educative campaign of publicity" conducted by Mr. Lee for Mr. Rockefeller in connection with the Colorado coal strike, was made public to-day by the Federal Commission on Industrial Relations.
The letters include those which Chairman Walsh, of the commission, claims prove that a letter written to President Wilson by Governor Ammons, of Colorado, was prepared under the direction of Mr. Rockefeller. They will be the basis for the examination of the latter when he resumes the stand before the commission here on Tuesday.

SEVERAL REFERENCES

TO GOVERNOR AMMONS
The correspondence from June 1, 1914, to August 5, 1914, contains several references to Governor Ammons.
After Mr. Lee and Mr. Rockefeller had agreed upon a plan for the distribution of a series of bulletins designed to "clarify the public mind" as to the Colorado situation, Mr. Rockefeller wrote to Mr. Lee that he had prepared a memorandum in reply to magazine statements and letters attacking the Colorado coal companies, but had decided not to make it public. He forwarded the memorandum to Mr. Lee and wrote:

"However, could well, even more appropriately, be used in the letter from Governor Ammons to President Wilson which you are proposing to prepare as soon as the major's memorandum reaches you, which I hope will be very shortly."

The only major referred to in the correspondence is Major Boughton.
(Major E. J. Boughton is judge-advocate of the Colorado militia.)

On June 11 Mr. Lee said in a letter to Mr. Rockefeller:

"I am inclined to think that at the moment the best thing we can do would be to give the letter from Governor Ammons to President Wilson our attention, and I hope we can accomplish something very soon."

INTERESTED TO SEE

LETTER TO GOVERNORS

One June 25 Mr. Rockefeller wrote that he would be interested to see the letter from Governor Ammons to the Governors, and also "the Tarrytown article which you are preparing."

The last reference to this matter was in a letter from Mr. Lee to Mr. Rockefeller on July 2, in which he wrote:

"With reference to the letter for Governor Ammons, I am not entirely satisfied with the draft I prepared, and I am making certain amendments to it. I sent out a draft for discussion, but will get it into shape in a day or so and then send you a copy."

In the early letters Mr. Rockefeller discusses "the broad educative campaign of publicity" such as you and I have talked of," and Mr. Lee suggested a plan of circulating leaflets and bulletins, sending Mr. Rockefeller a bound volume of the material "we issued in connection with the recent campaign to increase freight rates 5 per cent."

One June 10 Mr. Rockefeller inclosed to Mr. Lee a check for $2,000 "as a personal loan applicable to the initial expense of organizing the publicity campaign you are undertaking on behalf of the coal operators at Denver." He asked for the return of the money as soon as the operators began to remit to Mr. Lee.

OTHER PUBLICITY

PLANS ARE DISCUSSED
The correspondence discloses that other publicity plans were discussed.
On June 18 Mr. Rockefeller wrote Mr.
Lee:

"Referring to the publication on a weekly basis, and with many additional features of the 'Nation's Business' by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, of which matter I spoke to you the other night, I am inclosing copies of two letters from Mr. Harry A.
Wheeler setting forth the project. I have written Mr. Wheeler of my talk with you about this matter, and have told him you are soon to be in Chicago, and asked him if he would arrange to talk the matter over with you."

In his reply the next day, Mr. Lee agreed to a plan to write letters correcting "many statements of fact" regarding the Colorado situation, and concluded:

"Thank you for the letters from Mr.
Wheeler. There is no doubt something can be done along these lines. I do not believe, however, that I will ever come to the point of thinking that you should establish and become responsible for a string of daily newspapers."

On July 2 Mr. Lee wrote that he expected to lunch with Colonel Harvey, and to talk to him about Harry Wheeler's scheme.

In the same letter he referred to a speech by Representative Kindel, of Colorado, and said: "We are going to have Mr. Kindel distribute some twenty or thirty thousand copies of his speech to a mailing list which we will supply."

On July 11 Mr. Lee wrote that he had talked with Mr. A. Delano, then a member of the Industrial Relations Commission, and had been "assured" that the commission had decided not to go to Denver until the "pending difficulty" was over. "That will prevent a reopening of the flood gates on this subject," he added.

Many of Mr. Rockefeller's letters inclosed newspaper or magazine articles which he suggested for use in the bulletin plan and many suggested persons to whom bulletins should be sent.

The commission to-morrow will conclude the inquiry into the relations of labor and the law.

WILL PRAY FOR WILSON

Colored People Adopt Resolutions Commending President's Stand.

Large crowds attended yesterday the revival services held at the Leich Street Memorial Methodist Church by Rev. Simon P. W. Drew, of Washington, D. C., known as the "Colored Billy Sunday," and many hit the "sawdust trail" to redemption.

After the services, the congregation adopted resolutions commending the revival and particularly asking for the prayers of all the colored people in Virginia and the South in behalf of President Wilson in the crisis which now confronts him and the nation.
That part of the resolutions which had reference to President Wilson is as follows:

"Resolved, That we in like manner appeal to the Christian Church and to the colored people of the United States to fervently and earnestly petition the all-wise and gracious Providence, to lead, guide and direct President Woodrow Wilson in dealing with the complicated international situation which now confronts our country in its treaty and diplomatic relations with Germany and other powers, and to pray that he may bring about a cessation of military hostilities and a lasting and great world peace."

In the afternoon Rev. Drew delivered a talk before the student body of Hartshorn Memorial College and the Virginia Union University. He said that the way of wisdom is the way of wealth and prosperity, material and immaterial, and that only he who makes the best of wisdom and knowledge can make the best of life.
